SUVRETTA CONBRIO: THE PERFECT SETTING FOR PREMIUM EVENTS

The Suvretta ConBrio banqueting ensemble consists of salons and rooms of different sizes, furnished in keeping with the style of the establishment and operationally integrated into the smooth running of the hotel. The selection of rooms perfectly meets the demands of corporate occasions such as congresses, conferences, seminars, or incentive events. The unique character of Suvretta House is also an ideal setting for private celebrations such as weddings, baptisms, birthdays, and anniversaries. The banqueting rooms and salons are equipped with state-of-the-art technical facilities and can cater for speeches, lectures, presentations, and artistic performances of all kinds, as well as seminars, training events, and workshops.

Facilities to match the events concept

The banqueting rooms and salons can be furnished to suit any occasion – with conference, banquet or theatre seating. Depending on the nature of your programme, the rooms can be used individually or linked together for larger events. The generously proportioned Foyer “Atrio”, for instance, is ideal for cocktails or elegant buffet lunches, while the “Festivo” or “Capriccio” banqueting rooms are available to stage the main event.

The salons are ideal for smaller conferences or festive occasions for a select guest list, if you desire sole use of a private space. What all rooms in the ConBrio banqueting ensemble have in common is the elegance of the décor. A subtle blend of the traditional with modern classic elements pervades these rooms and gives the key-note to your event.

THE CHOICE OF ROOMS: FLEXIBLE AND VERSATILE

The reception: a friendly welcome

First appearances do count. The refined charm of Suvretta House is apparent as soon as you set foot in reception. Delegates and guests immediately sense they are being welcomed to a special place whose magic is hard to resist.

The “Atrio” foyer: multifunctional and flexible

The “Atrio” foyer directly adjoins the reception and provides the link to the “Festivo” and “Capriccio” banqueting rooms. It is ideal for receptions, cocktails, and coffee breaks. Lectures for an audience of up to 50 or banquets seating up to 30 people can be accommodated in its two side wings, which can be screened off.

The “Festivo” banqueting hall: spacious and elegant

The largest banqueting room at Suvretta House has a discreet and appealing art déco style. “Festivo” can accommodate 350 people with theatre seating. The capacity for banquets and seminars is 200 to 220, depending on the seating arrangement. There is level access from the courtyard to the versatile stage, also for vehicles. The hall is equipped with the most modern stage and lighting technology.

The “Capriccio” banqueting room: intimate and charming

The small “Capriccio” banqueting room is just the right size for banquets for smaller groups, as well as conferences, seminars, and private views. It can accommodate 30 to 70 people and has a pleasant, discreet charm.

The “Venise”, “Vert”, “Bon” and “Segantini” salons: individual and stylish

The salons are the ideal complement to the banqueting rooms at Suvretta House and offer further options for family and business gatherings for smaller groups. The décor ranges from the luxurious extravagance of the “Venise” salon to the noble ambience of the “Vert” salon and the cool classicism of the “Bon” salon.

Anton’s Bar: welcoming and relaxing

Suvretta House’s legendary bar, with its elegant 1920s interior, offers atmospheric surroundings in which to see out the evening to live music. It is named after the founder of Suvretta House, Anton Bon (1845–1915), who was a pioneer of the Swiss hotel trade.

THE HOTEL AND ITS SURROUNDINGS: FIVE-STAR LUXURY IN AN IMPOSING POSITION

Suvretta House is set in a natural landscape away from traffic noise and the hectic pace of the city. Yet it is still in the immediate vicinity of St. Moritz, with its convenient transport connections. The magic of the place, combined with the crystal-clear, healthy mountain air, has a stimulating effect on the business of conferences as well as the festive mood of private family parties.

Our accommodation comprises 181 comfortably appointed rooms, junior suites, and spacious suites. The level of comfort more than fulfils the expectations of our discerning guests. Radios, televisions, direct-dial telephones, Internet access, wireless LAN, and voicemail are standard in all rooms. Every guest is welcomed with mineral water and fresh fruit. The rooms and suites on the south side of the hotel have a magnificent view over the lakes and the mountain landscape of the Upper Engadine. The rooms on the east, west and north sides look out over the park landscape surrounding the hotel and the wider Corviglia region.

Children play an important part in family celebrations. Your little princes and princesses are made welcome at Suvretta House. For private family parties, we can arrange a separate children's table, decorated especially for them, if you wish. We also have a special restaurant catering exclusively for children, the "Teddy Club", which serves delicious, healthy meals between 6 and 7.30 pm. Children are never bored at Suvretta House. During the day, they can join in the fun with a trained kindergarten playleader, romp around in the fresh air, or watch children's films in the Suvretta Cinema.

THE CULINARY ACCOMPANIMENT: COMMITTED TO QUALITY AND STYLE FOR ALL OCCASIONS

At Suvretta House, our chefs create innovative haute cuisine dishes with an international twist. But they are equally at home attending to the specific requests of event organisers or hosts of private parties. They cover a wide spectrum, from sumptuous gala dinners with multiple courses, through wide-ranging specialities and themed dishes for buffets and refined lunches, to their “Apéro riche” and simple nibbles for refreshment breaks. The choice is yours. Our cellars have a wide selection of wines from the world’s finest vineyards to complement your business lunch or celebratory dinner to perfection. Meals are served in whichever banqueting room or salon you have chosen for your event. We are also happy to serve your private guests or delegates in both of our hotel restaurants.

In the evening, let us indulge you with choice gourmet creations in our lavishly restored Grand Restaurant, dating from 1912. At lunchtimes and in the evening, our cosy Suvretta Stube restaurant is ready to provide you with well-loved Suvretta classics, Swiss specialities, and authentic dishes from the Grisons.

Suvretta House operates three mountain restaurants in the locality and further afield, all worth the trip: the Chasellas Restaurant serves simple dishes at lunchtime, but likes to surprise its guests in the evenings with Gault-Millau-rated gourmet specialities. There are all sorts of delicious, traditional dishes on the menu at the Trutz Mountain Restaurant, while hungry skiers and snowboarders can enjoy well-earned refreshments in the Chamanna Mountain Restaurant at 2672 metres above sea level.

THE SUVRETTA SPORTS & PLEASURE CLUB: A TRUE PARADISE OF WELL-BEING

Suvretta House has a wellness and fitness area which far exceeds conventional hotel health facilities. The 25-metre pool, with its clear view of the mountain tops and the skies over the Upper Engadine, is an experience to be savoured in its own right. The spacious open-air whirlpool and sauna rooms – finnarium, sanarium, vaporium, and caldarium, in which air temperature and humidity can be precisely adjusted to suit you – are just some of the facilities on offer all year round at the Suvretta Sports & Pleasure Club, catering to your every need.

Other key elements of the wellness philosophy at Suvretta House are the rejuvenation and beauty therapies. Our expert staff offer a broad range of massage and cosmetic treatments. Fitness-conscious guests can make use of the latest equipment for aerobic and weight training in our gym, where a professional trainer is on hand to assist.

Numerous other sports and leisure facilities are within easy reach of the hotel. In summer, the magnificent mountains of the Upper Engadine invite you to enjoy walks and strolls or go on a mountain-biking tour. Depending on the occasion, a tennis tournament on the three hotel tennis courts can be built into your programme of events, or you can introduce your delegates or party guests to the delights of golfing on the hotel driving range. In winter, the Upper Engadine is a magnet for skiers (downhill and cross-country), snowboarders and ice-skaters, curlers and sledging enthusiasts, as well as hikers. Our own ski-lift right by the hotel takes guests directly to the valley station of the chairlift, giving access to the varied landscape of the Corviglia winter sports region.

Sporting activities provide relaxing interludes during business events and foster team-building. They can also add an extra attraction to your private party.

HOW TO REACH US

By car

The Upper Engadine is accessed by means of several Alpine passes with good roads. The Vereina railway tunnel, with its car-loading facilities at Klosters-Selfranga in the Prättigau and Sagliains in the Lower Engadine, cut your journey time between Zurich and St. Moritz to around 3 hours. Suvretta House is about 10 minutes by car from St. Moritz.

By train

The Rhaetian Railway (RhB) links the lowland from Chur onwards with St. Moritz every day, on an hourly basis. From Zurich's main station, the rail journey is about 3.5 hours, from Basle slightly over 4.5 hours, from Berne (depending on the connection) between 4.5 and 6 hours, from St. Gallen just less than 4 hours, and from Geneva around 6 to 7 hours.

Taxi flights

The flight from Zurich to St. Moritz/Samedan takes 30 minutes.
