- With an extended summer season, Suvretta House will welcome guests until 18 October
- New for this year, the hotel launches the 'Suvretta House Activity Package' keeping wellness top of mind in the alpine air

June 2020 – Suvretta House, the 'Grand Dame' of the Swiss Alps is delighted to announce that it will reopen its doors and begin to welcome visitors from 10 July. This year, for the first time, guests will be able to enjoy the iconic hotel and the surrounding Engadine Valley well into the golden autumn months, as Suvretta House extends its summer season until 18 October.

The hotel is large and spacious and has wonderful gardens, offering plenty of room for guests to sit back and relax, all while keeping a respectable distance from other visitors. Onsite, active guests can make use of the tennis courts and golf driving range, while for those who want to explore further afield the Engadine Valley awaits. With endless mountains to hike and majestic lakes to sail on, Suvretta House is the perfect base for travellers looking to disconnect from the stresses of life, breathe in some fresh alpine air and return from holiday feeling rejuvenated, restored and refreshed.

REFRESH THE BODY – NEW SUVRETTA HOUSE ACTIVITY PACKAGE

New for this season, the hotel is offering the Suvretta House Activity Package, enabling visitors to tailor every aspect of their stay. An array of different sporting activities and relaxing spa treatments will be offered on an exclusive and private basis. Activity highlights include hiking (or biking) the hills and enjoying the 580km of hiking trails right on the hotel's doorstep, which range from leisurely panoramic walks to more demanding mountain climbing tours. The Engadine Valley is home to Switzerland's only National Park, stretching over 170km² and home to 5,000 species of animal wildlife, 650 varieties of flowering plants, as well as 21 different hiking trails and guided glacier walks. In addition, Suvretta House has its very own Suvretta Sports Bike School, with experienced local guides who know all the best biking trails in the region. Guests looking for a friendly knockaround or to perfect and fine-tune their swing can enjoy a private tennis lesson with a view on one of the hotel's three clay tennis courts. Other outdoor activities include al-fresco yoga and Nordic walking. The annual Fit & Fun activity programme will also be available, with daily experiences to choose from including goat trekking and picnics to paddle boarding, golf, and sailing on the magnificent Lake Silvaplana which lies at an altitude of 1,791 metres above sea level and is the largest natural lake in the Alps spanning over 1,000 metres.

FRESH ALPINE FARE

Guests will be able to enjoy breakfasts and lazy lunches on the sunny outdoor terrace of the Suvretta Stube while taking in the magnificent mountain panorama. Foodies can enjoy the half-board menu as well as the delicious à la carte offering from Chef Fabrizio Zanetti (16 points Gault Millau) which will be served in the Suvretta Stube this summer and autumn. In-room dining will also be available for those who want to enjoy a private dining experience in the comfort of their own rooms. The two mountain restaurants, Trutz and Chasellas, will be open and serving local Swiss fare, with guests able to enjoy a socially distanced chairlift journey between the two complete with spectacular view.

CULTURAL CALENDAR

Throughout the summer season, guests will be able to enjoy an array of special activities including a Mountain Herb Hike with Chef Fabrizio Zanetti on 7 August and the weekly Sunday Jazz Barbecue on the Suvretta terrace. The famous summer classics will also be back, with a Clay Pigeon Shooting tournament taking place on 17 July, Fly-Fishing on 10 August and a Painting Course with the theme "quintessentially British" taking place between 24 – 29 August. Guests visiting on 1 August will also have the opportunity to celebrate Switzerland's national holiday savouring a delicious picnic at the Suvretta Stube while admiring bonfires and fireworks over the Alps.
